changed but there is talk of concessions on outside makes.

New demands have been netably quiet in iron and steel this week, the most notable feature being large sales of Southern Gray Forge from at Pittaburg. Priese schibit all their old strength and here the margin of profit on finished products is andoubledly very good. The strength of the lumber markets above little imnairment. Wool, as a whole is quiet and steady. Copper is notable among the products advancing this week, added there in by large rensamily demand. A fair trade is doing in books and show.

Leather is firmly held, strength being imparted to this and finished products by the small stocks of hides available.

Partially compensating for the falling off in exports of natural products, particularly ceretain is the immense expansion of exports of manufactured goods. Shipments of stong goods in March aggregated over $55,000,00 or $5 ber cent of all our exports a proportion rarely if ever approached before.
